JMCA Read-a-Thon

Keep donating to our Read-a-Thon. So far, we have raised $1,159 and read 9,473 minutes. Keep it going, our goal is $3,500!

Seuss Day

We are celebrating Dr. Seuss' birthday Friday. We encourage students to come dressed as a Seuss character. We will have a parade, Seuss activities and an assembly to celebrate. We encourage everyone to dress like a Seuss character that day to help us celebrate. Students will vote on the best door decorations as well.

FLL Jr. Competition AWARDS!!!

Last Saturday our "Jr.s" competed at Janitell and came home with several awards:

Seahorses - Innovative Programming for "addressing structural issues with their crane and coming up with two separate coding strings that moved their crane up and down. They also included different sound elements to make each movement unique."

Pop Tart Lava Dragons – Cooperative Explorers for their use of teamwork to learn about the BOOMTOWN BUILD Challenge. "The teamwork and showmanship included brilliant ideas."

Unicorn Army – Creative Model for their "imaginative approach on their haunted hospital. The jet was innovative."
